HUDDLE HELPER

ROOM SIGNAGE is essential for staff and patient safety.

- Isolation signage must remain in place until the room is terminally cleaned.
- Please do not remove signs when a patient is transferred or discharged until the environmental health staff has cleaned the room.
- The signage alerts staff to don the necessary personal protection precautions when they enter the room and ensures that the proper disinfectants are used.

Keep Staff Safe—Keep Signage in Place!

StJosephsHealth.org Sponsored by the Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth